Brandy vs. Cholera.

BRANDY.
Tell me, dread plague, why goest thou forth,
Spreading dismay and death
From East to West, from South to North,
With pestilential breath?

CHOLERA.
Foul, poisonous drug, charge me no more
With crimes of such excess;
My victims number many a score,
But thine are numberless.

BRANDY.
That is not true, for I have sure
Been often instrumental,
With pepper to effect a cure;
I also am preventive.

CHOLERA.
Ah, brandy, thy untimely birth
Has caused perpetual tears;
While I have consoled around the earth
But twice in sixteen years.

The rich, the poor, the young, the old,
Are crushed by thee each day,
While death and evil manifold
Are sown in thy pathway.

Alas many a widow thou hast made,
And many an orphan pair—
On many a home hast cast a shade
Of darkness and despair.

So, brandy, say no more to me,
Of pestilential breath;
While I will leave to thee
To do the work of death.

Gen Grant -- His Tanning Operations.

An exchange, reviewing one of our complimentary notices of Grant, says he tanned the hides of Copperheads, Rebels, etc. The exchange alluded to has tackled the wrong person with its statistics upon the subject, by thus criticising our remarks. We happened to have known Grant before the war and while it was going on, when, strange to say, as we were dubbed a "copperhead," we were in the same military service as himself and under his command.
When Colonel of the Twenty first Illinois Infantry, at Mexico, Mo., he was a raving Democrat. One day he was in Kingold's bank, in that city, and, upon being asked if he thought the war was to be prosecuted for the abolition of slavery, he first avowed himself to be a Democrat, and then said he did not believe such to be its object, but that, if such were the objects of the war, upon being convinced of the fact, he would resign his position in the federal army and go over to the enemy.

We were at Donaldson, and know that the only tanning he indulged in at that place during the battle was the tanning of his inner hide with whiskey. He tanned himself in this manner until he was unable to sit upon his horse. The battle was fought by Gen. Smith, and Grant got the praise.
How did he tan the rebels at Shiloh? We were there. On the 6th day of April, 1862, we, a "copperhead," expended upwards of 160 rounds of ammunition, shooting at the rebels; our hide was tanned during the day slightly, however, by rebel bullets, while the great "rebel tanner," Grant, was down the river at Savannah. When the sun was shedding its last rays over the bloody day's work, we saw Grant, just from below, sneaking off a transport at Pittsburg Landing.

Who turned the tide of battle the following day? Grant was there, but the fighting was done under the direction of a man who was subsequently executed and dishonored—Carlos Buell. There is not a soldier who participated in that battle who will not say that, only for Buell, Grant's army would have been annihilated at Shiloh. Truly has the brave Prentiss said that "the true history of that battle was never written."

We can't understand how Grant tanned old Andy. If ever a man was thoroughly tanned by another it is Grant, who was proven, publicly, a liar and a fool, by Andrew Johnson and the combined testimony of five others. We may indulge in a few more reminiscences concerning Grant's tanning qualities at some future time.

The seventeen year locusts have made their appearance all over the country, in many places doing much damage to fruit and other valuable trees. In Johnson and Harrison townships, and probably other portions of our county, they are playing sad havoc—stripping trees of their leaves, and in many cases poisoning cherries and other early fruit.

We would caution the public against using fruits where the locusts have been at work; and also from eating squabs and other game that feed on locusts, as in a number of instances we have heard of death resulting therefrom.—Vin. San.

Two or three weeks ago last Thursday there occurred in the northern part of Washington county, Ky., the heaviest and most remarkable storm of hail of which we have ever known at this season of the year. The hailstones were larger than patridge eggs and drifted into hollows and were piled up to the depth of seven feet. A week afterwards masses of ice were still to be seen there, large enough to fill a score of wagons, and they had not entirely disappeared up to Tuesday of the present week.—Lebanon Clarion.

During the late war, after a long march, a captain ordered as a sanitary precaution, that the men should change their under-shirts. The O.S. suggested that half of the men had only one shirt each. The captain hesitated for a moment, and then said: "Military orders must be obeyed. Let the men change with each other."

Work upon the Ohio river bridge, at Louisville, is being prosecuted with great energy. On the Indiana side a large force is employed upon two of the most important piers, and the contractors are satisfied the masonry will be entirely finished this year. On the Kentucky side the superstructure is being raised, and in a short time the draw over the canal will have been completed. From the first of July it is intended to erect two of the bridge spans per week. All the plans have been made with a view to the completion of the bridge by next spring.

A dashing young widow in Detroit prepared a pleasant surprise for her suitor a few evenings since. Expecting a call from him, she hid herself in a convenient corner, and as he touched the knob of the door bell, sprang out in the darkness of the evening and nearly smothered him—with kisses. His cool reception of her came set startled her with a recognition of the fact that, instead of her lover, she had been lavishing her sweetness upon the conductor of a street car, who had come with a note explaining an unforeseen absence. Being a widow, she omitted to faint.

We mingled freely with the people last court day, and listened attentively to the talk concerning the selection of delegates, for this county, to attend the Congressional Convention, which is soon to be called to select a standard bearer for Congress in this district.

All agree that the delegates should be selected by the popular vote of the county, and to obviate the necessity of calling the people out a second time a poll should be opened at the August election, and that each Democratic voter can indicate who is his preference to represent him in the next Congress.

If Jones be the choice of the true Democracy let them say so, and upon the contrary, if Judge Arthur is their favorite, let them say so.

Fair play is a jewel, gentlemen, and you who call meetings for the party, fix it so that the people can speak and not the tricksters, and cliques, and rings, who have fastened their fangs upon the party.

The Jonesites hereabouts, have gone into contempt. They hope and pray that the Democracy of Harrison will endorse Jones, that they may have it to say, that Federalism and Yankeeism may be endorsed—that it may be said that our people are a set of puppies and hounds, who will kiss the boot that kicks them, or lick the hand that slaps them—that the vandalisms which were perpetrated in our county during the war, shall be applauded—that old-fashioned Democracy shall become a hiss and by-word. We are informed that a man in Cynthiana, who was a Union-howling Federal of the ultra-Lincolnite stripe and it is said wanted to raise a Yankee regiment, to fight and kill, and destroy the people of this county and country, and who is now, in his own estimation only, a great Democrat, asserts that if the Democracy of this county hold a primary election, that it will split the party. That is to say, that these Jones-Union howlers intend to run Jones for Congress any how, nomination or no nomination—that they are afraid to go before the people of Harrison, knowing as they do, that they and their weather-cock candidate will be repudiated. Yes, dear reader, these Jonesites are determined that you shall vote for their choice, right or wrong—with all of Jones' political filth hanging upon him, be cause, as we hear that they say, that they carry the Democratic party in their pockets. Think of that, fellow citizens. You are told to vote for that the clique and the ring, have all the wisdom concentrated in their bodies. When we are carried in any man's pocket, we want to be handled carefully, and that too by a man, who has not been out of the Lincolnite camp long enough to have had the smell of the free-nigger washed off from him. And what is still more laughable, ridiculous and absurd, that because the old time-honored Democratic principles, that the people should rule, and that any reference of any mooted question to the people for their decision should split the Democratic party, is certainly an extraordinary assertion. The Democratic party to-day would have been better off had the man who made that assertion remained with his original Radical friends, and whenever he desires to split the party, a meeting shall be called, and a vote shall be taken, granting him full permission to go back to his old friends; but he must not expect to carry any true Democrat with him; and he must not expect by assertions about splitting the Democratic party, &c., to gain their attention long enough to work any of his Union-whang-doodle notions in our "party-pudding," for heavier mailed warriors than those we have in our mind's eye just now, have attempted it, and been wrecked.

A fair hearing must and shall be given to the people of this county. No other will suit. When the people declare their preference, then we can submit, but we will not be ruled by two or three men, whose Democracy we know to be questionable—and whose radicalism we have left and experienced to the bitterest extreme. Persecution was their cry in 1861, and we hear distant murmurings of the same just now. "Lay on McDuff, and d—d be he who first cries, hold, enough."

It has been intimated by the Radicals that unless the Fourteenth Amendment is adopted, and its provisions carried out, that the States thus failing to acknowledge the right of the nigger to vote and enjoy all the privileges of a white man, shall be excluded from representation in the electoral college, or in Congress. The white people can never submit to negroize this country, to please a few higher-law worshippers, and they never will adopt a proposition so obnoxious. The Radicals may threaten to exclude a State from representation, until by and by the people will exclude themselves without an invitation from the usurpers, and it will be so common that the rotten old concern will be compelled to change hands to sustain its being. The miserable policy which these negro-worshippers have adopted to sustain their sinking fortunes, is in harmony with the acts of tyrants and oppressors everywhere. They cannot sustain themselves nor the government which they have nearly destroyed, without a resort to vandalism.

But they dare not exclude Kentucky and Maryland, on an amendment to the Constitution, which depends upon the next November election for the existence it must have hereafter, and as certain as this life is real, and that we, as a people are not dreaming, this amendment will be defeated and set aside.

The issue in the race between Seymour and Grant is, to a certain extent, entirely upon the point:

Shall this government continue a white man's government, or shall it be negroized.

Are negroes better than white people?

Have they got more mind and more enterprise than white people?

Did our forefathers suffer and fight for seven years, that the negro should possess the country?

Have we, as a people, no more self-respect than that we should equalize ourselves with the negro—introduce him into the pulpit, the parlor, and the rostrum?

And all this we should carry out because a few crazy loots from Massachusetts have declared that it shall be so.

They shall live to be disappointed and no State will ever be excluded from representation.

The leader of the Jones party, in this county, (whose Democracy, we consider, is not worth a fig,) asserts that it is the duty of the party to endorse and return Mr. Jones to Congress, that Mr. Jones has always been a true man to its principles; that we owe it to ourselves inasmuch as it has been the time-honored custom of the party to do so.

We are not able to give an opinion as to the propriety of a change in the Constitution in that respect. That instrument has already been manipulated too much, and it seems that every party that is successful before the people, must tinker with the Constitution, for the purpose of making it harmonize with their miserable notions of national policy. We are opposed to all people, who put their unworthy hands on that instrument, either for its violation, change or amendment. We are opposed to the crew who have already proposed to change it to suit their especial ideas, and we oppose their revolutionary principles.

The President desires also to change the Constitution with reference to the term that a supreme judge shall hold his office—that a judge shall hold his office for twelve years only. That is a matter that does not effect the people, how long or how short a man shall remain in office, especially as a judge of the supreme court. We incline to the opinion, however, that the judges on our supreme benches should remain there during life or good behavior.

The people of the United States should cease to elect men to office, who make office hunting a business—who beg an office from the people and become pensioners to their bounty. Let the office hunt the man, and when such a man fills a position he will honor his place, the people and the country. Such a man will never be dissatisfied with the Constitution.

The wise acre asserts that the popular vote system will split the old lococo party of Harrison county. Go to then nunny-hammer. It split it in Cincinnati, in Louisville, in Chicago, in Lexington, in Covington, in Newport, in Scott, in Bourbon, in Woodford, in Jessamine, in Madison, in Franklin, and, in fact, all the counties that held primary elections; didn't it? Bah!

Lassitude.
A feeling of lassitude is generally experienced throughout the summer season. Weakly constituted people or those of sedentary habits invariably complain of this annoyance. The scorching heat of mid-summer relaxes the system and reduces the vital energies. If the patient is of a nervous temperament this debility mingles him for even the routine of every day life. When this state of exhaustion comes on Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will prove of safe and refreshing means of strengthening and restoring the physical organization. This health-giving tonic purifies and invigorates renewed vitality into the blood, tones the stomach and digestive organs, and acts like a charm on the nervous system. The infirmities of age are alleviated by its use. When mothers are nursing, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should especially be taken in regular doses, as in this country, most always, the nourishment is inadequate to the wants of the child. In such cases this inestimable tonic is wonderfully efficacious. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild and soothing.

We believe in yielding to the voice of the majority. The people believe in the same. We believe that a few individuals with their "sly traps" open at every meeting, should not forestall and control public opinion. The public believe the same. The people ask the Executive Committee to permit them to say who they are in favor of for Congress at the August election. Is it not fair, open and manly? None but a trickster can object to it, and we call upon the party to watch all such. Mark them for the future.

We notice from the Louisville Democrat that the Democracy of the Louisville district has called a convention of the party to meet at L'Arange, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

The Democrat says that the party must be wise, and select its ablest man. That is right. We must do the same thing in this district, and without any disparagement to any other individual, we must be permitted to say that we believe Judge Arthur is the sprightliest and perhaps possesses the most active brain of any man in the district. We are for him.

The Dyersburg (Tenn.) Gazette contains the following, which may be valuable to those of our friends who are growing tobacco:

If you will plant a few Jamestown weeds in your tobacco fields and will sweeten with sugar one pint of water and then put one ounce of cobalt into the water, and then drop four drops of this mixture into the bloom of the Jamestown weed, you can kill every tobacco fly on your place ere they hatch worms. So says Mr. Wm. Moore, of this county, who has tried it for many years, with the most gratifying results. By destroying the pest, the tobacco is saved, and the yield is increased.

Having formed new business arrangements, I am desirous to urge upon those friends in arrears with me, to come forward and settle their accounts as promptly as I can, and to become a debtor.

President Johnson has become dissatisfied with the Constitution; that portion which provides for the election of President. He recommends that the electoral college be done away with entirely, and that the people should have a fair chance to elect any man they delight to honor—that the popular voice of the people should be heard.

We are not able to give an opinion as to the propriety of a change in the Constitution in that respect. That instrument has already been manipulated too much, and it seems that every party that is successful before the people, must tinker with the Constitution, for the purpose of making it harmonize with their miserable notions of national policy. We are opposed to all people, who put their unworthy hands on that instrument, either for its violation, change or amendment. We are opposed to the crew who have already proposed to change it to suit their especial ideas, and we oppose their revolutionary principles.

Carlisle Norwood, President, and Jno. O. Mills, Secretary of the Lorillard Fire Insurance Company, being severally sworn, depose and say, and each for himself says, that the foregoing is a full and correct statement of the affairs of the said company—that the said Insurance Company is the bona fide owner of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars of actual cash capital invested in stocks and bonds, or mortgages on unincumbered real estate worth 50 per cent, more than the same is mortgaged for; that the above described investments, no part thereof, are made for the benefit of any individual exercising authority in the management of said company, nor for any other person or persons; that the said mortgages above described have not been assigned, nor in any manner released or impaired by said company; and that they are the above described officers of the said Lorillard Fire Insurance Company.

CARLISLE NORWOOD, Jno. O. Mills, President, Secretary.

Subscribed and sworn to before me a Commissioner of Kentucky, in and for said county of New York, State of New York, this 7th day of Jan, 1868.

CARLISLE NORWOOD, Jr., Auditor's Office, Ky., Frankfort, June 23, 1868.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original on file in this office.

In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, the day and year above written.

D. HOWARD SMITH, Auditor, Auditor's Office, Frankfort, Ky., June 24, 1868.

This is to certify, that M. L. Broadwell, as agent of the Lorillard Fire Insurance Company of New York at Cynthiana, Harrison county, Kentucky, has filed in this office the statements and exhibits required by the provisions of an act, entitled "an act to regulate agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," approved March 2, 1856, and it having been shown to the satisfaction of the undersigned that said company is possessed of an actual capital of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as required by said act; the said M. L. Broadwell, as agent as aforesaid, is hereby licensed and permitted to take risk and transact business of insurance, at his office in Cynthiana, for the term of one year from the date hereof. But this license may be revoked if it shall be made to appear to the undersigned that, since the filing of the above statement referred to, the actual capital of said company has been reduced below one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

In testimony whereof, I have set my hand the day and year above written.

THE NEWS

Cynthiana, Ky., July 23, '68.

LOCAL MATTERS.

S. F. Gillman shipped 750 head of sheep last week for Boston, mostly from here.

Last Saturday, the people of this country were blessed with a splendid fall of rain.

Miss Annella Small called to see us last week. She is the prettiest baby in Cynthiana.

The corn in Harrison looks better than we believed it could, with the scorching sun falling upon it. But it looks green and stout.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Friar was sun-struck and killed, while on her way from Campbell county to Batlers Station.

A tree fell across the railroad between Boyd's Station and Falmouth last Saturday, which detained the trains a short time.

The Radicals of the Mt. Sterling district have called a convention to meet in Mayville on the 3d of September, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress.

Henry Johnson, colored man, of this city, sold a piece of property on Pleasant below Main street, to Mr. McCarty, for $2,872.

Robert Hayman's brick-cart, driver and horse, all hands, fell over an embankment near Cook's distillery last Saturday. Nobody was killed.

We apologize to Col. Stodard Johnson, for asserting in our last week's issue, that he was the editor of the "Commonwealth." It should have been the "Yeoman."

The Democracy of Harrison will meet next Thursday night at the court house, for the purpose of organizing a Seymour and Blair club. Let all attend.

During the heavy thunder-storm which passed over our city on last Saturday evening, a house above the depot, was struck by lightning, and severely injured a colored woman who was sitting in the door.

Maj. W. A. Coffey, a delegate to the National Convention, from the Madison district, passed through Cynthiana, en-route for his home last week. He came through Washington city, and reports everything satisfactory in that region.

Mr. Ed. Hutchison, who resides at Tricinn, in this county, has an apple tree on his premises, which bears fine apples in a cluster, after the manner that grapes grow. The tree is literally covered with clusters. We acknowledge the receipt of a sprig.

A laborer, while working in an excavation in this city, fell over and seemed from his acts as if about to give up the ghost. It was supposed that he was sun-struck, but we are pleased to learn that he was whisky-struck.

Col. Wm. C. P. Breckinridge has retired from the editorial chair of the Lexington Observer & Reporter, and Mr. Geo. W. Rance, has been elected to succeed him. Col. Breckinridge is a fine writer, and he edited the Observer with ability.

Last Monday morning there were 33 car loads of cattle passed through this city to Covington, the largest train that has passed here for six months, and leaving some six car loads at this depot without transportation.

D. A. Givens says: his accounts are now due, or rather past due and that he takes no pleasure in dining his patrons. All persons in arrears will therefore call and liquidate their indebtedness without delay, as the money is needed and must be forthcoming.

Mr. Mit. Craigmyle keeps constantly on hand a large supply of pure lake ice, which can be had at any hour of the day. Any one wishing to subscribe, can have it delivered at their houses every morning. He can be found at the Eagle Shoe store.

Maginley & Carroll's great Legitimate Circus will give two grand exhibitions in this city on Wednesday, August 5, 1868. This Circus is spoken of by the press as one of the best organized companies now traveling. Let every body turn out.

A Truck.—The following words are used to win drinks. It is termed a "proposition."

As mortal stands upon the brink,
Of life, they never pause to think,
That the snuffing of a link,
In its brittle train might sink,
Their souls, but with a wink,
Say, "let's all go take a drink."

The extensive equestrian establishment of Hemmings & Co., said to be one of the largest and most perfectly equipped in the United States is advertised to perform in this place on Monday, July 27, afternoon and evening. The papers everywhere speak in the highest terms of this exhibition. Recollect the day, and let everybody turn out to see the baby elephant.

Last Saturday, Robert Janu-ry, a man of color, engaged with Mr. Frisbie at the depot in this place, was severely gored by a mad steer, and some doubts are entertained as to his recovery. We hope he may get up, as he is one among the most reliable men in this city, and his services cannot well be dispensed with in Cynthiana.

Our farmers used to receive for their sheep only about 2 and 3 cents per pound, and seemed delighted to receive that sum. Now they are changed, and refuse, many of them, to be ruled by the market, as they should be, and refine 4 and even 5 cents, just because there are men in the country making purchases, who are compelled to buy and sell according to the market. These sheep dealers cannot give the grower more for his sheep than can be realized for the same in an eastern market, and unless men sell their stock accordingly, the market will be closed in this country entirely.

Last week, Jacob Reucker, jr., of this county, purchased 7 head of thorough-bred 2-year old cattle, each of which weighed 1,250 pounds. They are for stock cattle, for which he paid 7 1/4 cents per pound, and are splendid in looks. Mr. G. Sparks, of Bourbon, raised and fed them, from whom they were purchased. Mr. Reucker is one of our most enterprising and worthy citizens, and is doing much to improve the stock of our county. We hope he may be successful in this new move, and realize all his expectations in this investment.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—This popular parlor Magazine has won for itself an enviable place in the esteem of American ladies. Its usefulness, the amount furnished for the money, is only equalled by its variety, its high tone, and general literary excellence. In all these respects it is far in advance of its contemporaries, and thoroughly deserves the high favor it has won. It is marvelous that premiums of real and great value can be added to a magazine of such cost and character, for three dollars per year. It only proves what is so often said, that books and newspapers are the cheapest and best educators in the world. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

FROM the subscriber's stable on the night of the 16th of July, a bay pony with a long black mane and tail, and has a scar on his right hind quarter. Any person finding said pony, will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at my stable in Cynthiana. July 23-24 THOS. LOWRY.

THE Harrison County Court, having been petitioned by a number of persons asking for the establishment of an additional precinct in this county, complaining of hardships and grievances under which they labor. For remedy whereof and in compliance with provisions of an act of the Legislature approved 7th March, 1868, it is adjudged by the court that a Justice District be established in this county, bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Robertson county opposite Clayville, thence up the river to the Buena Vista district, thence with a line of said district far enough to include Stephen White, and Richard Turner, thence to John Stewart's, thence to the new meeting house on the head of Daniels Lick, thence down Daniels Lick to main Harrison creek, thence down Harrison creek to the bend below Samuel C. Rankins' house, thence to the Falmouth road at C. P. Price's, thence with the Falmouth road to the bridge over Ferry road, thence with said road to the Warps's mill road beyond Samuel Downard's, thence up said road to Warps's School house, thence with Warps's line to Licking river, thence up said river to the Braeken line, thence with the Braeken line to the Robertson line, thence with the Robertson line to the beginning.

That said precinct be known as precinct No. 8, and called the Clayville precinct, and the house of Eliza Jackson, in Clayville, fixed as the place of voting, and it is ordered that at the next August election a Justice of the Peace and a Constable be elected, the Justice elected to hold his office until the next general election of justices of the peace and the constable elected to hold his office until the next general election of constables. That the name of the precinct No. 8, heretofore known as the Clayville precinct, be changed to the Richard precinct, and the place of voting remain as heretofore, and be still No. 3, and at the next August election shall elect a Justice of the peace who shall hold his office until the next general election of justices of the peace.

Grand Tour of the Republic!

It is impossible through the means of an ordinary advertisement to give an idea of either the magnitude or magnitude of the Great Exposition of 1868. Other papers have been partially devoted to that purpose, and explanatory sheets on a variety of the most interesting subjects, have been sent in advance.

The company has been two entire years in perfecting its organization—Circus and Trained Animals.

Although the names of many of the principal artists connected with the institution will be found below, the limited space of a newspaper column can give no adequate idea of their merit or the great diversity of amusements contained in the Grand Exposition. Many more well established in reputation on this continent are not to need special attention. Others, again, present more novelty.

The only means of giving the public a full idea of the exhibition, is to invite attention to the Grand Procession on the great 4th day. The procession is intended to display the unapanned

BEDDING.

THIS Company owns the right for Middle and Southern Ohio, Indiana, and Northern Kentucky. As every mattress is made at the company's Principal depot in Cincinnati, we will guarantee their quality.

We do not sell the Mattress or Pillow except in manufactured goods. Upholsters' orders filled for Elastic Cushion Sponges, in bales, for Furniture and carriage upholstery.

Special estimates made for enshrouding churches, halls, &c.

Discounts made to the trade.

The Advantages Claimed by us for Elastic Sponge, over Curled Hair or Feathers, are as follows:

- 1st. Its superior and permanent elasticity, which is not in the least affected by changes of temperature, nor by any reasonable lapse of time.
- 2d. Its unrivalled cleanliness. It is entirely free from insect life, from dust, or any source of decay.
- 3d. Its cheapness. It goes further in the manufacture of upholstery than any substance now used. It is obvious that the purchaser gets the benefit of this economical quality.
- 4th. Its healthiness. Feathers and hair being animal substances, exhale a characteristic and well-known odor.

After a continued and thorough trial of three years and a half by many of the best upholsters in the United States, we feel authorized by their concurrent testimony in asserting that we can now supply that great desideratum—an unexceptionably good bed at a moderate price.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

LOWELL, MASS., U. S. A.

FOR DYSPEPSIA or Indigestion, Flatulency, Laxation and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken immediately to stimulate the stomach, restore healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaints and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bile, Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause them.

For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Hemorrhoids, Constipation, Prolapsus of the Rectum, Stricture in the Uterus, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of diuresis.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

A Dose of 20 Pills, taken once or twice a day, promotes digestion and relieves the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels to healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous when no serious disease exists. One who feels tolerably well, often feels that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

For Sale.

I wish to sell my house, situated on Pleasant street, Cynthiana, opposite the residence of Dr. C. Wherrett. It contains three rooms, with a good cistern in the yard, and in good repair, and under good fencing.

Persons wishing to purchase can get all information needed by calling on me at my store on main street.

J. J. GOOD,
Agent for the Singer New
Family Sewing Machine,

This machine is without a superior in the world. It runs as fast and easy and with as little noise as any first class machine in market. It will sew from the stoutest leather to the finest bank bill, and makes every stitch perfect. It hems, fills, binds, cords and tucks; and is adapted to every variety of work. It is strong, compact and durable, and will last twenty years, for ordinary family sewing, if not broken by accident or carelessness. But it is useless to parade a long list of the merits of this machine before the public, as the poorest concerns furnish them in the greatest abundance. All can try this machine by calling on the agent and it will proclaim its own merits.

All kinds of gunsmithing, jobbing and repairing done to guns and pistols. Ammunition of all kinds kept constantly on hand.
